

My name is Abigail Crisp and I am a graduating senior from Arlington High School in Lagrangeville. I am eighteen years old and I grew up in Poughquag, NY. I graduated this year on the Principal's list and as a member of the Spanish, Italian and math honor society. I will be attending the University of California at Berkeley in the fall. I plan to major in computer science and linguistics. I have been raising sheep for about thirteen years.

As a 4-H project it started with buying market lambs in the spring, however when I turned twelve I began raising Romney sheep. I have had the pleasure of showing them at the Dutchess County Fair and building my flock and wool breed expertise over the years. Outside of 4-H and sheep, I volunteer as an English as a Second Language teacher at Grace Church in Millbrook and work at Zoe's Ice Cream Barn in Lagrangeville.

It is bittersweet to end my 4-H and sheep career, however I enjoyed all of it and will take the lessons and responsibilities I learned with me through life.
